- a necessary task to carry out under a contractual obligation between us and other persons or entities for the benefits of Customer;
- to ensure the safety or limit further damage to an individual's health who cannot give consent at the current time; and
- a necessary task for the good of the public.

7. Security Measures for Personal Data Protection

We have implemented certain security measures to ensure the security of Customer's personal data. In this connection, third-party organisations are required to carry out the processing of personal data in accordance with our security policy, and to ensure the security of Customer's personal data (More details are available at "Information Security Policy").

8. Time Period of Personal Data Storage

We will store Customer's personal data throughout appropriate period according to our scope and purposes, including other important matters such as legal requirements, accounting and auditing purposes. (More details are available at (More details are available at Vana Nava's Data Protection Officer).

9. Customer's Personal Data Rights

Your personal data rights include:

- right to revoke consent – for the case where we have obtained your consent in order to process your personal data;
- right of access – you have the right to request a copy of all your personal data and assess if we are processing your personal data in accordance with relevant laws;
- right to data portability – for the case where we have in place an automated platform allowing you to access your personal data automatically:
 - you have the right to ask for your personal data to be transferred automatically to other organisations, and
 - you have the right to request for your personal data in such a format that has been transferred from us to other organisations, except for the case where there is a technological limitation;
- right to object – you have the right to object to any data processing activity of your personal data which has been relied on certain legal bases and/or processing purposes, including:
 - public task or legitimate interest
 - direct marketing purposes, and
 - scientific, historical or statistic research purposes, unless the processing is necessary for public task;
- right to erasure – you have the right to request for data deletion or anonymization, in accordance to the following cases:
 - where processing required terms become expired
 - where consent has been withheld, and we cannot rely on other legal bases to process your personal data
 - where there is objection raised against data processing activity, and
 - where data processing activity is not in accordance with relevant laws;
- right to restrict processing – you have the right to restrict any data processing activity in accordance with the following cases:

- during pending examination process
- for cases related to personal data which shall initially be deleted and/or destroyed, but was followed by an additional request of processing restriction instead
- for cases where the data processing terms have passed, but you have requested for processing restriction due to legal reasons, and
- during the process of data processing objection verification; and
- right to rectification – you have the right to edit your personal data to be correct and concurrent to the present. If any mistake was detected, we might not edit this ourselves.

In the cases where we may not be able to carry out and support exercise of your rights, including, but not limited to, the cases where a legal process is taking place, you will continue to have the right to retract your consent by emailing all related parties, we will therefore be required to terminate all processes as soon as possible. However, the retraction only applies to the data processing carried out thereafter. Any data processing activity carried out before the retraction will not be reversed.

Please be informed that we do record all requests to ensure all issues are resolved. For any queries regarding your personal data protection and rights, more details are available at: TDPG3.0-C5-20201224-1.pdf \(chula.ac.th\)

In the case where you have the intention to exercise your personal data protection rights, or to file complaint against your personal data processing, please contact our DPO (contact details have been provided above). We will process this request in a secure and timely manner. Also, in case that we fail to preserve your rights under the PDPA, you can file complaint to the Office of the Personal Data Protection Commission (“PDPC”).

10. Policy Revision
